

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- 7:30 a.m. - REGISTRATION & ARAB HOSPITALITY
- 8:30 a.m. OPENING SESSION
HISTORY/SOCIAL SCIENCE FRAMEWORK
- 9:50 a.m. PLENARY SESSION
"Who are the Arabs?
Their Historical Roots
The Islamic Period
The Ottoman Period and Today"
- 10:05 - 11:05 a.m. PANEL
"The Arab People: Their Cultures, Religions and Where They Live"
- 11:05 - 11:45 a.m. INTERNATIONAL ARAB
BAZAAR, ART, MUSIC,
DISPLAYS, & DANCES
- 11:45 a.m. - LUNCH WITH SPEAKERS:
1:15 p.m.
•Casey Kasem
Radio & Television Personality
•Dr. Laurence Michalak
Vice Chair, Center for Middle Eastern Studies, Berkeley, California
- 1:20 - 3:30 p.m. SELECTED WORKSHOP
TOPICS:
•Arab Contributions to the World
•Ancient History
•Arab Language, Literature, and Music
•Family Structure and Role of Women
•Cultural Clues
•Dispelling Stereotypes
•Demonstration Lessons
•And Much More
- 3:35 - 4:30 p.m. CLOSING SESSION
"The Arab World:
One American's Perspective"
Jeremy Levin
Former CNN News Director,
Beirut, and Former Hostage in Lebanon

Children of Waleed and Ferial Masry

CONFERENCE OUTCOMES

This conference has been designed to help educators:

- understand Arab people through their cultures, religions, land, and history.
- integrate information about the Arab World into the History Social Science and English Language Arts Frameworks.
- understand current events in the Arab World.
- meet the needs of Arab students and the community.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Teachers—all grade levels
- History and Language Arts Teachers
- Art and Music Teachers
- Curriculum Coordinators
- District Office Personnel
- Parents
- Others interested in the Arab World

Children of Waleed and Ferial Masry

CONFERENCE REGISTRATIONS

Registration Deadline:
Monday, February 3, 1992

$40 registration fee includes continental breakfast, lunch, and classroom materials. Registration fees have been subsidized by gifts from the Arab community. For more information call Tom Gibbons, Consultant History/Social Science (310) 922-6331 or Dr. Margaret Grater, Consultant School Management (310) 922-6326 and For registration call Jo Bonita Smith Perez, Consultant Multicultural Education or Pam Ryan, Secretary (310) 922-6323